HIGHLIGHTS:

Wheat and corn bids were mixed for the week but soybean bids moved sharply higher. Fund buying was noted throughout the week across the Boards, weekly export sales weakened wheat bids but supported corn and bean bids. Weather also remained a direction factor. Wheat mixed, 3 to 8 cents higher and 2 to 6 cents lower. Corn mixed, 1 cent lower to 2 cents higher. Sorghum steady to 7 cents lower. Soybeans 10 to 16 cents higher. Weekly export sales were much improved for wheat, corn, and soybeans this week. US wheat carryover was lowered by 20 million bushels late in the week which offered support to bids. Some weakness was noted in wheat bids due to favorable weather conditions and moisture along winter wheat growing areas. Crop condition ratings even stayed unchanged this week. Corn bids were mixed, support stemmed from good export inspection numbers and technical corrections on the Board. Favorable weather across the Corn Belt should allow spring planting to progress over the weekend. Soybean bids continued to climb higher with strength from good export interest and a reduction in carryover pushing bids upwards. Fund buying was a plus factor mid-week.
